NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

The Chinese Bill to be Reported Back Favorable to the Senate.

The State Senate of Missouri Opposes the Opening of Oklahoma.

An Anti-Monopoly League Formed in New York—A Boston Speculator Gone.

The "Continental Railway"—What It Proposes to Do.

Senate.

Senator Davis, of Illinois, introduced a bill to confirm the right of Chicago to certain land on the lake front. Passed.

On the Indian severalty bill, Teller, moved to add a proviso, which provides that all titles upon lands being granted to them shall be subject to the laws of the State or Territory in which they reside, and to punish Indians for polygamy, which at the time of allotment was practiced in accordance with the usages and customs of the tribes to which they belonged. Agreed to.

The following amendments were adopted: Allowing the purchase by the Government of small parcels of the reservations not allotted to them. Also authorizing the education in the primary branches of a party of Indian boys.

The Continental Railway.

New York, Jan. 29.—The Times prints the prospectus of the Continental Railway company, which proposes to build a double-track air line road from New York to Chicago and Omaha by the consolidation of five companies organized under the laws of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Its promoters aim to furnish a great thoroughfare for the transportation of freight at less cost and with greater ease and expedition than any other lines. The present trunk lines, it is argued, were formerly built for local purposes on circuitous routes chosen to avoid expense or reach business centers. The new road will have uniform rates, and its carrying capacity will be threefold that of the present lines. The schedule proposed is fifteen cents a bushel for grain from Chicago, eighteen cents from St. Louis and twenty-four cents from Council Bluffs. The tariff on grain from Chicago during past years has usually been but twenty cents per bushel. The management will begin with starting eighty trains per day each way from Chicago and New York, which they expect after the first six months to increase to one hundred trains each way. The estimated cost of the Continental railway, including stations, grounds, equipment, machine shops, and all property and appliances necessary to put the road in first class running order, is one hundred million dollars. Prominent capitalists of Europe and America have already pledged the amount required to begin operations.

The Times says work will be commenced in a few weeks, and that contracts have already been made for the grading and construction of bridges between New York and Chicago. The line crosses fifty-one roads between New York and Council Bluffs, and will shorten the distance of forty-five of these roads over one hundred miles. The road will connect with the Missouri river and with the Pacific railway, and although the primary idea is a freight pathway, it is nevertheless the purpose to furnish a rapid passenger transit, bridging New York and Chicago within twenty hours of each other.

Will Report Favorably.

Washington, Jan. 29.—At a special meeting of the senate committee on foreign relations to-day, Chairman Eaton having at last succeeded in assembling a quorum, it was definitely decided to report back the Chinese treaties favorably without an amendment, and Senator Eaton will accordingly report them to the senate at its next executive session, with a recommendation on behalf of the committee that they be ratified in their present terms. The meeting was of course a secret one, and the members of the committee are extremely reticent in regard to the proceedings, but in addition to the above statement concerning the action reached, which may be relied upon as strictly accurate, there is reason to believe that the proceedings were not entirely harmonious, but that, on the contrary, the motion to report the treaties favorably and without amendment was carried by only one or at most two majority. It is quite certain, therefore, that the treaties will give rise to considerable discussion in the senate and that they will have to encounter both criticism and proposed amendments, but with the prestige of the committee's report in their favor, it may be confidently expected that they will obtain definite action at an early day without any amendment.

The Anti-Monopoly League.

New York, Jan. 29.—A new organization, called the Anti-Monopoly League had a meeting last night at Cooper Institute, Lee Chitenden presiding. Among those present were Rev. H. Newton, T. B. Thurber and Henry George. The president, in welcoming the merchants and workmen present, said it was the outgrowth of the sentiment against the gigantic monopolies of the day. They had appointed an executive committee who had prepared an address which would be sent to merchants and others in all the large towns of the United States. T. B. Thurber, on behalf of the committee, read the address. It says the league was established for protection against the aggression of corporations and to advocate, support and defend the rights of the many as against the privileges of the few. The league will endeavor to secure, among others, the following specified rules: laws compelling transportation companies to base charges upon loss and risk of service instead of the theory acted upon by them: What will the traffic bear; laws to prevent pooling and combinations and discrimination against any citizen on the public highways; no taxing people to pay dividends on watered stock; stringent laws against bribery, including the prohibition of free passes.

In Aid of the Telegraph.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Mr. Kirkwood introduced a bill in the Senate yesterday to aid the United States Postal Telegraph Company of Iowa, to extend its operations all over the United States. Messages are not to cost over twenty cents for twenty words. It also provides rates for the postal services in connection with it, which is one cent per message for a drop letter delivery, and two cents for carrier delivery, and such rates as may be fixed by the Postmaster General for special delivery, when a receipt may be demanded by the sender. It also provides that after ninety days after the enactment of this bill the company shall commence constructing its plans, and within twelve months thereafter shall connect the cities of Washington, Richmond, Charleston, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, St. Louis and intermediate cities with its lines.

Provision Market.

New York, January 29.—Business has slowly but steadily increased during the current week, although the markets have in many instances been characterized by continuous irregularities. The general opinion prevails that a good spring trade will be done. At the produce market business has been moderate. Wheat, quiet but stronger. Barley is nominally unchanged. Provisions of all kinds, although not very active, are higher.

McDonald, of the Rialto bucket shop, opened Thursday, after a brief and inglorious experience with Boston speculators, as he claims, left last night with several thousand dollars belonging to his creditors with whom he promises to settle later. He leaves word that his losses have been heavy.

A Millionaire in a Moment.

New Haven, Ct., Jan. 21.—Roeloff Von Baren, a Hollander, who has resided in New Haven with his wife and child for six months, has fallen heir to an immense fortune by the death of his great-grand-uncle, Heinrich Spier, of Rotterdam, who bequeathed him his property. Last week Heinrich Von Baren, half brother of Roeloff, called at this city direct from Rotterdam, accompanied by Wm. A. Beach, the New York lawyer, and Roeloff says, offered him $25,000 in cash if he would make him a business manager of his estate, Heinrich to pay Roeloff $25,000 weekly. This offer was refused, and Roeloff has since received letters from the Mayor of Rotterdam and two notaries who drew the will, informing him that the estate left him is estimated at between twenty-five and forty million dollars. It is said the property is the accumulation of several generations, and includes, besides an immense amount of real and personal property, two shipyards and a fleet of seventy vessels. Van Baren goes to New York to-morrow to meet the Mayor and notaries, who are said to have arrived there to consult with him. Van Baren is about 35, and says he was formerly a Catholic priest, entering upon that calling at the wish of his father, and older relatives, but after serving three years renounced religion against their wishes. He further says that in an altercation with his half-brother over the matter he was stabbed, and drawing his own knife killed his half-brother in self-defense. Acting under the advice of the authorities he went to London where he married an English woman, and lived under the name of Johann Spier, a name he has retained in this country. When he arrived in New Haven he was penniless, and his appeals for aid to his relatives being disregarded, and unable to get employment, he has lived mainly on charity.

A statistician in Harper's Magazine shows that, as to the total valuation of the national wealth, the United States stands third, Great Britain and France only leading. In average annual income per inhabitant this country rivals Great Britain and leads all others. At present the republic is growing rich at the rate of $2,300,000 a day.

Female temperance crusader at Star City, Indiana, have got in trouble, because they broke into the only saloon in town, emptied the liquor casks, broke all the glassware, and chopped up the pool table with an axe. The proprietor didn't take it as meekly as they expected to, and sued them for damages.

Robert T. Lincoln is mentioned as a possible member of Garfield's cabinet. Aside from the memories associated with the name, Mr. Lincoln is an accomplished lawyer and a man of great integrity and sterling character. He is 39 years of age, and is one of the leading members of the Illinois bar.
